

Resources available for Postgraduate Research Students

The University of Melbourne has established guidelines on PhD candidature for departments, supervisors and candidates, and seeks to continually improve supervision and academic support. See <http://www.research.unimelb.edu.au/postgraduate/infrastructure.html>

This document details the facilities and resources available for postgraduate research students within this department.

OR This document lists the key facilities and resources available for postgraduate research students within the department. For detailed information please visit the Postgraduate Handbook page.

Name of Department, School or Centre

Department of Electrical and Electronic Engineering

Number of PhD students enrolled at 31 March 2004

49

Number of Research Masters students enrolled at 31 March 2004

18

Name of Postgraduate Coordinator and contact details

Associate Professor Stephen Hanly, s.hanly@ee.unimelb.edu.au, tel: 83443830

Name of Postgraduate Administrator and contact details

David Strover, d.strover@ee.unimelb.edu.au, tel: 83449201

Information for students:

Induction session

Select one or more

Postgraduate student handbook/website

Building Access:

24 hour access with key/swipe card

Select one

Business hour access only

Other arrangements – please specify

Working space

Total number of desks available

100

Arrangements

Single desk per student

Select one or more

Allocated desks shared between students

Communal research student work areas

None provided

- Usual storage provision Lockable cupboard or locker
- Select one or more* Bookshelves available
- None available

Computing

- Total number of computers (< 4 years old) available for research students
- Arrangements Single computer per student
- Select one or more* Machines shared by particular students
- Dedicated postgraduate computer lab
- Other arrangements – please specify

Software available for student use

Microsoft office, Latex, MatLab, C-compilers

Resources (provide details and applicable departmental limits)

Lab space and consumables - project determined

Photocopying - automatic

Printing - automatic

Telephone - automatic

Dial-in internet access – through own ISP provider and virtual private network client

Interlibrary loans - supported

Conference and travel funding (details of schemes operating in faculty/department)

As determined by the research centre the student is associated with.

Technical support provided at faculty or departmental level (if applicable)

Technical support provided by the Department's IT team.